Dear Mr. Boucher:

STAT I am embarrassed! Your query seems to have fallen through the cracks and I apologize. I have asked [redacted] to prepare an immediate response acknowledging the receipt of the materials you sent and answering any other questions you posed.

Thank you for your thoughtful follow-up to our request for information and while our response(s) were not timely, I am sure that the information has been passed to the appropriate individuals.

I appreciate your continuing interest and again my apologies.

Sincerely,

STAT [redacted signature box]

Dear Mr. Maloney:

STAT
In February, I sent the attached letter to [redacted] Since I haven't had any response, I thought I would ask you. Though I have changed positions within Intel, I am still interested in knowing if the material I sent was received, and how effective it was.

Very truly yours,

Richard D. Boucher

STAT

Dear [Redacted]

Some time back I sent you some information regarding training programs on how to get your computer operation to be more customer oriented. Since I hadn't heard from you I was wondering, 1) if you had received the material, and 2) if you did, how effective was it. My people who put it together for me keep asking how it went.

Very truly yours
